

MRS. DIEWALD'S Newsletter

We had another busy week in second grade! We learned how to write a friendly letters and wrote to Santa, Mrs. Diewald and our friends in Mrs. Meyer's Class. We learned place value to the 1,000, how to spell words with contractions and even fit in play practice.

What will I learn next week.....

Religion: In Religion we will light another candle on our Advent wreath. We will begin Chapter 22, God Calls Us to Love and Serve. We will learn about different ways we are called by God as we grow older. Some of us may choose a Religious life, single or married. We will talk about how each of these choices will still lead us to serve God and others. We will also light our second Advent candle.

Math: We will continue working on place value to the 1,000. We will learn how to read and write numbers, count by 5's, 10's, and 100's, compare numbers and more. Keep practicing your facts our next Chapter we will learn about three digit addition.

Reading: During Reading Class next week we will be taking our Benchmark Theme test. We have been testing every Friday over the material we have learned each week, but this test will see how well we know the information from the entire unit. There will be a Spelling section on this test so no new words for next week.

English: In English class we will continue testing. This test will have section on revising and editing and they will even write a story.

Social Studies/Science: We will work on projects for Christmas.

REMINDERS:

Santa's Kottage - Monday, December 9th

Funderwear - deadline is December 10th

Blankets for Babies - deadline is December
20th

Have a great weekend!